General information for VW T4 according to Wikipedia:

The T4 was available in several trim levels in Germany:

- Transporters in many designs (Vans, - cluster, platform and bunk with a double cabin)
- Syncro all-wheel drive in conjunction with five-cylinder engines from 1996 as a VR6 MPV, under the name Caravelle (carpet flooring, paneled columns, high-quality wall panels) with a maximum of 9 seats including driver,
- Family and recreational vehicle Multivan (wood floor with a plastic coating, folding rear bench seat as a bed, were front and center in the individual seats, the Middle to Model 1999 rear facing), then rotate.
- RV California Coach high top with fold as a simple camping and mobile California as Exclusive motorhome recreational vehicle with a fixed roof as high alcove.
- Carthago motorhome Malibu with retractable roof
- Business as a vehicle for well-paid managers who love the understatement. This vehicle was prior to the introduction of the VW Phaeton is the most expensive car of the Volkswagen brand.
